

FOOD & WINE TRAILS OPTIONAL SHORE TOURS

Greetings!

During the course of your upcoming cruise this September, you will have the opportunity to join your O'Brien Estate cruisers on an exclusive Food & Wine Trails optional shore excursion in the most widely acclaimed wine region of France (and the world) - Bordeaux!

A region's food and wine gives much insight into its land and culture. This is no truer than in France, home to many of the world's finest chefs and wineries. Food & Wine Trails has unique culinary contacts around the world that give us the inside connections we need to offer exclusive pre-cruise and shore tour programs, specifically designed for the food and wine lover.

Spend a day in the beautiful St Emilion appellation visiting two prestigious châteaux. A gourmet, wine-paired château lunch followed by a historical walking tour of the monuments and nearby village of Saint Emilion complete your day in this celebrated region.

If you haven't already reserved your spot on the pre-cruise program in Paris, we encourage you to do so. The "Meet Me in Paris" package includes accommodation for three nights in a charming, boutique hotel located on the Left Bank in the historical Saint-Germain des Prés district of Paris. Guests will enjoy a welcome dinner upon arrival in a renowned local restaurant, a free day in Paris, and a full day tour in the wine region of Champagne. On the last day, the group will take a high-speed TGV train from Paris to Bordeaux to board the S.S. Bon Voyage.

Both the shore tour and pre-cruise program are available exclusively to the guests of O'Brien Estate. Enclosed you will find the full tour descriptions, tour registration forms, and comments from past cruisers praising Food & Wine Trails tours as "the highlight" of their trip.

We highly recommend booking early as tours are limited in capacity and tend to sell out quickly!

THE RISING REDS OF BORDEAUX – RIGHT BANK

PORT: LIBOURNE, FRANCE | THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 12, 2019 | 9:30 AM – 6:00 PM*

For generations, Bordeaux has been known as the most famous winemaking region in the world. Every year, wine lovers from all over the world come to Bordeaux for one simple reason: to visit the 300,000 acres of vineyards that lie outside town and stretch for miles in every direction. And no matter which direction you go, there's an appellation—from the classic reds of the Médoc to the underappreciated whites of Graves and Entre-Deux-Mers; from the unparalleled dessert wines of Sauternes, to the rising reds of the Right Bank's Pomerol and Saint-Émilion.

ST EMILION VINEYARDS

Winemakers from all over the world have credited the wines of Bordeaux for influencing their personal winemaking style. Food & Wine Trails has designed a special experience at three châteaux that produce Grand Cru Classé reds in the Saint-Émilion appellation, considered by some to be the “Capital of Merlot” and possibly the oldest, active wine producing appellation in the region with history dating back to the ancient Romans.

CHÂTEAU LA GAFFELIERE

Your day begins with a visit to Château La Gaffelière ranked a Premier Grand Cru Classé since St Emilion's classification system was created in 1959. The unbroken presence of the Malet Roquefort family at the estate since 1611 makes them the oldest winegrowing family in St Emilion. They benefit from a very special terroir that they call the “Golden Triangle”, located between the hills of Ausone and Pavie. You will tour their vineyards and winery which combines high-tech innovation with traditional architecture, and then enjoy a tasting of three of their wines.

A short drive brings you to another top winery in the St Emilion appellation - Château Pavie. The winery's name comes from the small-vine peaches called “pavie” that used to grow there. Awarded several 100 point scores by Robert Parker, Pavie continues to produce complex, opulent wines that stand out as some of the best in St Emilion. Your visit begins with a tour of its magnificent cellar designed in 2013 by the famous architect and decorator Alberto Pinto, followed by a tasting of their award winning wines.

After your tasting you will transfer to the picturesque Château de Candale. This charming chateau was built by lady Marguerite de Suffolk Kandale, direct descendant of the King of England Edward III. You will enjoy lunch on their beautiful terrace in the middle of the vineyards. Chef Cyrille Gallard has designed a three-course menu paired with the estate's wines.

CHATEAU DE CANDALE

Later this afternoon your guide will lead you into the medieval village of Saint Emilion for a private tour of the underground hermitage and monolithic church before heading back to the ship.

Per Person Price: $389 per person

Tour Includes: Expert wine guide, transportation, bottled water on the bus, all entrance, tour & tasting fees, lunch served with wine and all local taxes.

Not Included: Gratuities for guide and driver and all items of a personal nature.

Activity Level: Medium - Extensive walking, at times over uneven surfaces.

Note: Times and providers are subject to change. Due to capacity limitations at the wineries, and depending on final tour size, the tour may be split into two groups. After dining together for the wine-paired lunch at Château La Dominique, the groups will alternate the second and third winery visits.

Travel Insurance: F&WT highly encourages protecting your travel investment in case of an emergency requiring you to cancel your trip. Your F&WT's Travel Consultant can assist you with procuring the appropriate coverage. Please make sure to read the cancellation policy on the registration form outlining our cancellation policy.

MEET ME IN PARIS

PARIS, FRANCE | 3-NIGHT PRE-CRUISE PROGRAM | SEPTEMBER 5 - 8, 2019

Romantic, vain, convivial —France's capital is home to haute couture, masterpieces of art and architecture, temples of fine dining, but also cozy bistros, vibrant ethnic enclaves, and bohemian cafés. One of the most visited destinations in the world, the City of Lights glitters brighter than ever.

You are invited to meet your fellow group members in Paris early for a three night pre-cruise program, where you'll stay in a charming, art-design hotel on Paris' historic Left Bank. You'll enjoy a group welcome dinner, a day tour of the French winemaking region of Champagne, and an entire day to explore Paris on your own. From Paris, you'll take a high-speed TGV train to Lyon, where you'll begin your river cruise.

THE HOTEL BEL AMI IN PARIS

DAY 1 | INDEPENDENT ARRIVAL IN PARIS & WELCOME DINNER [D]

Guests arrive in Paris independently and transfer to the hotel on their own.

Although Paris does grandeur better than any place, its greatest pleasures are its simplest ones: the rustic charm of a small bistro; the crunch of a perfect baguette. All of this comes together along the Left Bank, or the Latin Quarter. This is Paris' most historical district, where Picasso, Hemingway and so many others found inspiration. Here you'll find the Musée d'Orsay (home to one of the world's greatest impressionist art collections), the Sorbonne, the Eiffel Tower, and the Luxembourg Gardens. This is where the city grew up and came of age. Located just off the Boulevard Saint-Germain des Prés, is the five-star L'Hôtel Bel-Ami, your home for the next three nights. This boutique hotel in the heart Saint-Germain-de-Près combines its warm design with an elegant and friendly atmosphere.

Check into your room and spend the afternoon exploring or just relaxing in your room. Later, meet your Parisian guide Laurence, who will be your host for a special welcome dinner this evening at one of our favorite nearby restaurants, L'Alcazar. This chic restaurant has become an institution of the Left Bank.

L'ALCAZAR RESTAURANT

Laurence holds Canadian and French citizenship and has called Paris her home for over 20 years. She devotes most of her time to the finer foods and wines of France, and will lead you on an informative walk from the hotel to the restaurant explaining some of the rich history of this neighborhood. You will enjoy a delicious meal paired with some of Laurence's favorite wines before an evening stroll back to the hotel. She will also offer some recommended activities and visits for your free day in Paris tomorrow.

DAY 2 | INDEPENDENT DAY [B]

Enjoy a buffet breakfast at the hotel.

Today is your day to explore Paris on your own. Visit the Louvre, the Musée d'Orsay, walk along the Ile Saint-Louis, stroll the Champs-Élysées, see the Arc de Triomphe, take a scenic boat ride on the Seine on one of the bateaux mouches, window shop on Rue Saint-Honoré, or visit Paris' most beloved monument—the Eiffel Tower. The day and evening are yours—so enjoy!

SCENIC BOAT RIDE ON THE SEINE

DAY 3 | CHAMPAGNE REGION [B, L]

Enjoy a buffet breakfast at the hotel.

Champagne is the world's single greatest region for sparkling wine and just a little over 60 mile drive from Paris. Your guide for the day is described by Joel Peterson, Ravenswood Winery's President and Winemaking Hall of Famer, as being "among the best wine guides I have ever hired."

THE CAVES OF TAITTINGER

The first stop of the day is at the village of Rilly-La-Montagne. Located in the heart of the prestigious "Mountain of Reims" sub-appellation, this charming village will provide the backdrop for your introduction to Champagne's different vineyard climates. After a brief tour you will visit the family-owned Champagne house of Daniel Dumont. Independent winemaker Jean-Michel Dumont owns 50 acres of vineyards in seven different surrounding villages. Not only does he make excellent Champagne at great value, but he also runs a vine nursery which provides select, grafted vines to many growers. You will enjoy a tasting here before walking a short distance to lunch at a local Champagne merchant. Prise de Mousse is both a restaurant and wine shop that represents the growers in the area and proposes over 150 different Champagnes. Have you ever experienced a meal entirely with Champagne? The locals here do it all the time! Owners Fabrice and Nathalie will host you for a special lunch paired with a selection of their favorite Champagnes.

Following lunch you will transfer into Reims to visit the renowned estate of Taittinger, where you'll taste a selection of their champagnes including a very special cuvee, their Folies de la Marquetterie, made with grapes that surround the castle, Château de la Marquetterie. You'll also take a tour down into a labyrinth of chalk caves initially dug in the 4th century for construction materials and then used to harbor Christians, Jews and the town folk during WWII. At the end of the day, you will return to Paris arriving at approximately 7:00pm. Enjoy the rest of the evening on your own.

DAY 4 | TGV TRAIN TO LYON / EMBARKATION [B]

PLACE YOUR "CHECKED" LUGGAGE OUTSIDE OF YOUR HOTEL ROOM DOOR NO LATER THAN 7:00 AM (RETAIN YOUR CARRYON LUGGAGE). IT WILL BE TRANSPORTED DIRECTLY TO THE SHIP.

After a buffet breakfast at the hotel, you will check-out of your room and then be taken to the train station to catch the mid-day, high speed TGV train to Lyon. Another motorcoach transfer brings you right to the pier where you will board the beautiful SS Catherine to begin your river cruise.

PER PERSON PRICE: $1,949 PER PERSON

SINGLE SUPPLEMENT: $799

TOUR INCLUDES: Three (3) nights hotel accommodations in a Superior Room, wine-paired dinner with local guide, three (3) buffet breakfasts, full day tour in Champagne wine region with local guide, two Champagne tastings and one lunch with Champagne, transportation on deluxe AC motor coach, bottled water on motor coach, hotel portorage, luggage transport to ship, TGV first-class train fare from Paris to Lyon, transfer to ship, and some local taxes.

NOT INCLUDED: Transportation to the hotel upon arrival, daily hotel city tax of 3.30€ per person / per day, gratuities for the drivers and guides, hotel upgrades, additional hotel nights, meals not included in the tour description and all items of a personal nature.

ACTIVITY LEVEL: There will be some walking on uneven surfaces to negotiate throughout the tour. Taittinger caves access is by steep stairs and not wheelchair accessible; however the lounge where the tasting is being conducted is accessible. The tour is available to wheelchair guests who have a collapsible wheelchair and are able to make their own way on and off the motor coach as well as have a companion to assist them.

NOTE: Times and providers are subject to change. Due to capacity limitations at the wineries in Champagne, the tour will be split into two groups. The groups will alternate day 2 and day 3, with half the group going to Champagne on day 2 and the other half on day 3.

TRAVEL INSURANCE: F&WT highly encourages protecting your travel investment in case of an emergency requiring you to cancel your trip. Your F&WT's Travel Advisor can assist you with procuring the appropriate coverage. Please make sure to read the cancellation policy on the registration form outlining our cancellation policy.

HOTEL ROOM UPGRADES & INDEPENDENT NIGHTS

The L'Hôtel Bel-Ami is a mere stone's throw from the Place Saint-Germain-des-Prés, a few minutes' walk from 'Café de Flore' and the restaurant 'Les deux Magots', once frequented by Sartre, Simone de Beauvoir, Marguerite Duras and their existentialist circle. It is therefore only fitting that the L'Hôtel Bel-Ami a hotel whose frontage bears witness to the industrial revolution and its conversion from a former printing works, owes its name to the title of one of the best known works of French literature from the 19th century – 'Bel Ami' by Guy de Maupassant. From its friendly and serene atmosphere to the graphic designs, woodwork and wooden floors the hotel Bel Ami is the epitome of modern luxury. Whichever room you choose, you can expect excellent service and amenities. Please inquire for single rates.

Comments from past Food & Wine Trails' clients...

"We had never taken a food and wine trip before and now I imagine that everything else will pale in comparison. The beautiful views and the wines were magnificent and forever memorable."

K. Vengel (Davie, FL)

"The winery we visited during the pre-program was a great introduction for the cruise. The owners were gracious and welcoming and the lunch was delicious with wine pairings."

B. Taranto & R. McLean (New York, NY)

"Expectations are inherent with a trip of this magnitude. From start to finish we were blown away by the reality that all aspects of this adventure stayed ahead of our expectations! Well done!"

B. Rutherford (Marina Del Rey, CA)

"The excursions just kept getting better and better. The service and amenities exceeded my expectations at every turn. The F&WT excursions were well thought out and planned, and our F&WT rep was spot-on with recommendations and guidance throughout the planning process. They were very well done and a very special treat."

K. Wolcott (Reston, VA)

"This was a truly magical experience. My expectations were completely blown out of the water! Everything was amazing and now I just want to do a Food & Wine Trails tour every year. "

J. Campbell (Chico, CA)

"This was an excellent excursion lead by a very knowledgeable and entertaining sommelier. Excellent wines, food, olive oil and tastings. A great day!"

D. & L. Fahl (Leesburg, VA)

"An excellent experience. Our guide was very informative and knowledgeable, and learning about the grapes and wine making techniques in the different locations was exactly what we were looking to do."

J. Grossman & R. Wagner (Seattle, WA)

"The two shore tours were amazing since they would have been hard or impossible to arrange on our own. The tour itself was great and the food & wine fantastic."

B. & J. Thomson (Ann Arbor, MI)
