FOOD & WINE TRAILS OPTIONAL PRE-CRUISE LISBON PROGRAM

Food & Wine Trails invites you to visit the cosmopolitan city of Lisbon and the nearby Alenquer wine region with your Rombauer Vineyards winery hosts and fellow cruisers, as part of our special two-night pre-cruise program.

A region's food and wine gives much insight into its land and culture. This is no truer than in Portugal, home to many of the world's finest chefs and wineries. Food & Wine Trails has unique culinary contacts around the world that give us the inside connections we need to offer exclusive pre-cruise land programs, specifically designed for the food and wine lover.

This two-night package includes two nights at the 5-star Tivoli Avenida Liberdade Lisboa Hotel, a welcome dinner at a traditional Fado house, a visit to a 17th century palace, a day tour of the Alenquer wine region including wine tasting and lunch, a city tour of Lisbon that visits several of the city's major attractions, and transportation to the ship on embarkation day.

The pre-cruise program is available exclusively to the guests of Rombauer Vineyards. Enclosed you will find the full tour description, tour registration form, and comments from past cruisers praising Food & Wine Trails tours as "the highlight" of their trip.

We highly recommend booking early as tours are limited in capacity and tend to sell out quickly!

A TASTE OF LISBON & ALENQUER WINES

LISBON, PORTUGAL | 2-NIGHT PRE-CRUISE PROGRAM | SEPTEMBER 27 - 29, 2019

A city set on seven hills, the Portuguese capital of Lisbon has a history longer and richer than any other European city. Facing the river Tagus, connected by the stunning bridge that reminds us of San Francisco's Golden Gate, the charm of Lisbon exists in its strong links to the past. Its renovated palaces, magnificent churches and an impressive castle mirror the city's rich cultural heritage. The labyrinth of streets that crisscross the city's historical center with its tile covered buildings are unique in the world.

PORTUGAL'S CAPITAL CITY, LISBOA

We invite you to join your fellow cruisers two nights early, and discover this beautiful city and one of its nearby wine regions. Spend a day in the Portuguese DOC winemaking district of Alenquer and sample some of the wines that make this region special. This pre-cruise option includes two nights in a city center 5-star hotel, a welcome dinner and Fado performance, visit to a 17th century palace, and an excursion to an Alenquer winery with a tour, tasting and a wine-paired lunch hosted by one of the region's premier wine families. Your stay in Lisbon also includes a guided city tour and a private transfer to the ship on embarkation day.

TIVOLI AVENIDA LIBERDADE LISBOA

DAY 1 | INDEPENDENT ARRIVAL IN LISBON [D]

HIGHLIGHT: WELCOME DINNER & FADO

Guests arrive in Lisbon independently and transfer from the airport to the hotel on their own.

Accommodation for both nights will be at the 5-star Tivoli Avenida Liberdade Lisboa hotel. Located right on the Avenida da Liberdade, this recently renovated property sets the luxury standard in central Lisbon. With over 80 years of tradition and savoir-faire the hotel attracts artists and film stars from the nearby theater district even today. Rooms are elegant and comfortable and offer modern amenities.

After checking into your room and some time to relax, you will meet your guide in the lobby for the short drive to Lisbon's Alfama district, considered the historical heart of Lisbon during its Moorish past. Tonight's welcome dinner will be at the Mesa de Frades Restaurant and will include an authentic Fado performance. The restaurant is located in a converted old chapel lined with 18th century tiles. Sit back and enjoy a traditional Portuguese meal served with local wines, accompanied by the bohemian music and lyrics of these talented guitarists and musicians.

DAY 2 | ALENQUER WINE REGION [B, L]

HIGHLIGHT: WINERY TOUR, TASTING AND LUNCH

Following breakfast in the hotel's restaurant, you will meet your guide in the hotel lobby and depart for the Alenquer wine region.

On your way to the Alenquer region, you will make a stop in Queluz for a private guided visit of its magnificent Queluz Palace & Gardens, reminiscent of Versailles. The royal estate was first built in the 17th century as a manor house for King Pedro II, but was later enlarged and transformed into a graceful palace. Today it is well preserved and open to the public, and often accommodates state guests and dignitaries: former U.S. presidents Eisenhower, Carter, Reagan, and Clinton all stayed or dined at the palace.

Today's final destination will be Chocapalha Wine Estate. Here you will enjoy a private tour, tasting and lunch at a wonderful and enchanting property that is not only known for its architecture, but also for its history, beauty and wines. The vineyards of Chocapalha date back to the 16th century and were given to a Scotsman, Diogo Duff, who fought for King João VI and received both the land and the "Tower and Sword" insignia. The current owners Alice and Paulo Tavares da Silva bought the property in the mid-1980s and made significant improvements, allowing this small family-owned winery to earn 90-point scores from Wine Spectator and 4 stars from Decanter. The wine tasting will be led by winemaker and daughter of the owners, Sandra Tavares da Silva, or a member of the oenology staff. Following the tasting, you will join the family for lunch at their charming house. Dinner this evening is on your own.

DAY 3 | HISTORIC LISBON [B]

HIGHLIGHT: CITY TOUR AND TRANSFER TO THE SHIP

After breakfast in the hotel's restaurant, you will check out of your room, meet the group in the lobby and depart for a beautiful city tour of Lisbon. Begin the tour with a private, guided visit to the National Tile Museum, presenting five centuries of decorative ceramic tiles, or azulejos, tracing the history and production of the art form. Tile making is deeply embedded in Portugal's history and is a major component in the architecture and design of the country's most beautiful buildings. The next stop will be at Antiga

Confeitaria de Belém, dating from early 19th century. This Lisbon fixture now serves 10,000 Pasteis de Belém (custard tarts) a day, a specialty made with a secret centuries-old recipe. End your morning with a panoramic tour of the Discovery Monuments and the XVI-century Belem Tower. You will also visit the XVI-century Jeronimos Monastery, which exemplifies the Manueline style, a highly decorative form of architecture that emerged during the reign of Manuel I (1495-1521). Your tour ends as you arrive at the pier where you will board the ship in time for lunch and the beginning of your next journey... Bon Voyage!

Comments from past Food & Wine Trails' clients...

"We had never taken a food and wine trip before and now I imagine that everything else will pale in comparison. The beautiful views and the wines were magnificent and forever memorable."

K. Vengel (Davie, FL)

"The winery we visited during the pre-program was a great introduction for the cruise. The owners were gracious and welcoming and the lunch was delicious with wine pairings."

B. Taranto & R. McLean (New York, NY)

"Expectations are inherent with a trip of this magnitude. From start to finish we were blown away by the reality that all aspects of this adventure stayed ahead of our expectations! Well done!"

B. Rutherford (Marina Del Rey, CA)

"The excursions just kept getting better and better. The service and amenities exceeded my expectations at every turn. The F&WT excursions were well thought out and planned, and our F&WT rep was spot-on with recommendations and guidance throughout the planning process. They were very well done and a very special treat."

K. Wolcott (Reston, VA)

"This was a truly magical experience. My expectations were completely blown out of the water! Everything was amazing and now I just want to do a Food & Wine Trails tour every year. "

J. Campbell (Chico, CA)

"This was an excellent excursion lead by a very knowledgeable and entertaining sommelier. Excellent wines, food, olive oil and tastings. A great day!"

D. & L. Fahl (Leesburg, VA)

"An excellent experience. Our guide was very informative and knowledgeable, and learning about the grapes and wine making techniques in the different locations was exactly what we were looking to do."

J. Grossman & R. Wagner (Seattle, WA)

"The two shore tours were amazing since they would have been hard or impossible to arrange on our own. The tour itself was great and the food & wine fantastic."

B. & J. Thomson (Ann Arbor, MI)
