

FOOD & WINE TRAILS OPTIONAL SHORE TOURS

During the course of your upcoming cruise, you will have the opportunity to join your Rombauer Vineyards fellow cruisers and winery host Reagan Rombauer on two exclusive Food & Wine Trails optional shore excursions.

On your first tour from the port of Cadiz, you will travel to the hill town of Jerez, famed for both its local and sherry wines. Enjoy a visit at one of the city's most notable Bodegas, followed by a guided tour of Jerez's historical center and a sherry-paired lunch. Next, from Marseille, you'll spend the day in France's heralded Châteauneuf-du-Pape region with our super star American-born sommelier. Taste a selection of wines at two award-winning wine producers and enjoy a multi-course lunch at one of our favorite restaurants.

These shore excursions are available exclusively to the guests of Rombauer Vineyards. Enclosed you will find the full tour descriptions, tour registration form, and comments from past cruisers praising Food & Wine Trails tours as "the highlight" of their trip.

We highly recommend booking early as tours are limited in capacity and tend to sell out quickly!

WINE BODEGAS & COCINA OF JEREZ

PORT: CÁDIZ, SPAIN | MONDAY, SEPTEMBER 30, 2019 | 10:00 AM – 5:30 PM*

Located upon one of many hills mid-way between the nearby mountains of the sierra and the brilliant white towns and villages of the coast, Jerez is where sherry wines share the stage with other age-old symbols of the city, such as flamenco and horse breeding. Locals here say that you can't possibly understand sherry wines without first understanding the food. For them it's all about the food, and the wines provide an ideal pairing. Today, you'll sample both from an area known for its cuisine!

Your tour of the Andalusian town of Jerez will include a visit to a Bodega that has been producing some of the finest sherry wines in the region.

Start your day at Bodegas Tradición, a newer winery, but one that holds the honor of being the successor of the oldest winery in the region. In addition to sherry production, the winery has a small but valuable collection of Spanish paintings from the 14th to the 19th centuries on site. Here you'll taste three wines and a sample of one of their brandy wines.

After your winery visit you will transfer to the historical quarter for a guided walk of the city's landmark sights. Learn about Jerez's rich heritage and marvel at its impressive architecture on a pleasant stroll through this centuries-old city. Following your walk, enjoy a wine-paired lunch at family-owned restaurant, La Carboná, near the city center. Housed in a former bodega, the restaurant's sherry centered menu will start with a selection of tapas, and be paired with local wines from the Cádiz region. After lunch, return to the ship to continue your journey.

CHATEAUNEUF-DU-PAPE & THE SOUTHERN RHÔNE

PORT: MARSEILLE, FRANCE | SATURDAY, OCTOBER 5, 2019 | 8:15 AM – 5:00 PM*

VINEYARDS OF CHATEAUNEUF-DU-PAPE

The Southern Rhône offers an impressive array of world-class wines. From the rich reds, to fresh whites and elegant rosés, there is something for everyone. Less than 60 miles from Marseille, Châteauneuf-du-Pape is your destination for the day. Renowned wine critic Robert Parker said, "The greatest appeal of Châteauneuf-du-Pape, beyond its food-friendly qualities, expansiveness, generosity of flavors and sumptuous texture, is the almost addictive attraction of its combined intellectual and hedonistic elements." Your guide today will help you understand firsthand what Parker meant. As an American-born and French-trained sommelier, his goal will be to educate you and your palate on what makes Châteauneuf-du-Pape such a classic wine region. In the process you will also discover the broader Côtes-du-Rhône appellation and taste some of its best reds, whites and rosés.

Your first stop this morning is at Le Clos du Caillou, just north of the village of Châteauneuf-du-Pape. Here is one of the most terroir-driven producers in the region. Their wines are intense, concentrated and often exhibit aromas of the surrounding "garrigue" vegetation: rosemary, thyme and lavender. This intensity is balanced by a natural freshness and elegance.

Lunch will then be served at nearby chef-owned restaurant, La Table de Sorgues. The menu, made with fresh ingredients and full of flavorful foods, is paired with a selection of regional wines.

After lunch you will visit the highly respected, award-winning winery, Domaine de la Janasse. With wines consistently rated in the 90s by Wine Advocate and Wine Spectator, Janasse, has become synonymous with excellence in the wine world. Following a tasting of their wines you will return to the ship.
